Taghazout & Imsouane Travel Guide

Surf, Beaches & Coastal Routes · 3 to 5 Days

OFFICIAL MOROCCO FIELD EMERGENCY CONTACTS

- Royal Gendarmerie (Coast Roads): 177
- Urban Police: 190
- Protection Civile (Ambulance): 150
- International SOS: 112

Field Intelligence: Coastal Realities

Cash & Payments: ATM locations and service can change. Keep a modest amount of cash for small purchases while using cards where accepted.

Beach Parking & Board Hire: Parking fees vary. Use designated parking, ask the attendant to state the full price before leaving your vehicle, and confirm equipment condition before paying for hire.

Souss-Massa Cost & Logistics Matrix

EXPENSE	WHAT TO CHECK BEFORE BOOKING	USEFUL QUESTION
Stay	Room type, dates, cancellation terms, breakfast and taxes.	Is the quoted total for the full stay?
Surf session	Lesson length, instructor ratio, board, wetsuit, transport.	Does the lesson suit my level and the day's conditions?
Coast transport	Route, luggage/board capacity, pickup point, return availability.	Is the fare per person or per vehicle?

The 5-Day Blueprint: Day-by-Day Field Log

Day 1: Agadir Touchdown & Panoramas

Arrive at Agadir-Al Massira. Pre-book a transfer to the coast. Taghazout reveals itself as a cascade of whitewashed houses and blue wooden doors. Drop your bags and consider an introductory surf session at Panoramas if conditions allow.

Day 2: Point Break Mastery & Nomad Sanctuaries

Anchor Point is a renowned right-hand point break. The take-off calls for confident positioning. Less experienced surfers should ask a local school to identify a suitable beach. Need to log work hours? Head to SunDesk Coliving & Coworking.

Day 3: Paradise Valley Gorge & Timlaline Dunes

Trade your surfboard for hiking shoes. Route P1001 winds through the Asif Tamraght river valley. Hike to the deep limestone gorges of Paradise Valley for refreshing swimming holes. In the afternoon, head to the coastal sand dunes of Timlaline.

Day 4: Coastal Passage to Imsouane & Magic Bay

Travel north via Tamri toward Imsouane. La Baie is known for long right-hand rides, chosen by learners and longboarders when conditions are suitable. Beginners should book a local lesson.

Day 5: Cathédrale Sunrise Session & Return Transit

Cathédrale is a more exposed option with steeper peaks. Enjoy a traditional breakfast of warm Berber flatbread with amlou. Confirm your departure option and pickup time, allowing a generous buffer for the road journey back to the airport.

Practical Gear Checklist

- Neoprene & Hardware: Wetsuit (ask locally for thickness), reef booties, extra leash.
- Sun Defense & Skincare: Mineral zinc stick (SPF 50+), natural argan moisturizer, polarized sunglasses.
- Nomad Tech: Power bank, waterproof dry bag (30L) for open transit vans.